

YANIEL PAULINO

DIRECTOR-CINEMATOGRAPHER

Bringing Life and Purpose to Content

ABOUT ME

Yaniel Paulino is an award-winning NYC-based Director of Photography and Filmmaker, whose captivating artistic style showcases the innermost beauties within our vast world through the power of visual storytelling. His natural, dim-lit sets are reminiscent of the masterworks of Rembrandt and Cinematographer Roger Deakins. Throughout his creative career, Yaniel has had the opportunity to work directly with a multitude of prominent clients, including but not limited to NBC, Zara, Splexone, Cinemagiants, REVOLT.TV, FootAction, Brooklyn Nets, and Revlon. Born in New York City and raised in Dominican Republic, Yaniel spent most of his free time watching films. The more films he watched, the more his passion for the film industry grew. Before he knew it, his avid interest transformed into a lifelong vocation. In 2015, Yaniel was awarded "Best Short Film" for A Walk Within. Two years later, he directed Grayscale, his debut feature film that is currently running through Film Festivals. In 2019 he released a web series called "The Unknown Case". Furthermore, Photographer and Filmmaker Yaniel Paulino studied Digital Cinematography and Visual Arts at Full Sail University. He also specializes in emotionally-charged fine art photography.

WHAT YANIEL PROVIDES

Yaniel brings life to fashion content and has worked with all models of all types. He knows what angles will catch the audience's eyes through storytelling. Yaniel has worked with fashion influencers and has been known to be easy to work with along with bringing the best out of his models in every project. Yaniel is a master with fashion photography and videography. Working with Yaniel will connect you to his network of talented individuals that has helped him create fantastic content. His network expands from Writers, Influencers, Models, Graphic Artists, Video Editors to Marketers, and Public Relations. He uses his network depending on the project and may vary in price depending on how many people from his network will be working alongside him.
